Q: Hello, Mr. Oda!! They call me Sayaka! On page 79 of vol. 11, on the right corner of the fourth frame, there's a drunk guy! How come!? C'mon, Pal, tell me!!

A:

In this scene?

This man, right?

I'm very glad you noticed that. That man's name is Sam. He's drunk. He was staggering home after his daughter's wedding when he came upon the Arlong Park crowd. He saw a bunch of people making merry, so he joined them. That's Sam.

Q: What's this prosciutto and melon mentioned in vol. 11? [see v11 page 87]

A: It's an Italian appetizer that combines the saltiness of prosciutto and the sweetness of melon in exquisite harmony. There are many different variations of it.

Q: Where can I learn Fish-Man Karate? Please tell me.

A: On Fish-Man Island. It's about halfway along the Grand Line. It'll come up eventually, so just relax and wait.
